

COMMERCIAL.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, Sept. 13.—The market is quiet and rather heavy. Flour is unchanged, with receipts and demand light. Wheat is in good receipt, and the offerings today amounted to 2250 bushels, all of which sold at 140, 145 and 150, as to quality. Corn is dull and lower, and 318 bushels sold at 66 and 68. One small lot of Rye was withdrawn, and 600 bushels of Oats brought 32, 35 and 36 for common to choice.

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET, Sept. 12.—Beef Cattle—Prices to-day ranged as follows: Best Beefsteaks, 4 75 to 5 25; General butchers' first quality, 4 50 to 5 00; Medium or good fair quality, 4 00 to 4 50; Ordinary butchers' first quality, 3 50 to 4 00; Extra range of prices, 3 00 to 3 50. Most of the sales were from 20 to 30 head. Total receipts for the week 2742 head. Total sales for the week 2481 head.

The market has been more active than last week and firmer throughout. Prices have ruled higher. The quality of the stock is good, and the demand is fairly good, and the middle and common grades more numerous. Quotations 2 50 to 2 75 per 100 lbs, few selling at other extremes.

Milk Cows.—There has been a fair wholesale demand, but the retail trade has been lagging. Quotations 2 50 to 2 75 per head, as to quality. Sheep and Lambs—Good sheep and lambs continue to arrive in limited numbers, and insufficient to supply more than the home demand. If good stock in sufficient numbers was offered, it would doubtless realize a proper attention by the Eastern buyers, but the supply of sheep and lambs desired by shippers being inadequate, but few sales have been made to Eastern buyers. We quote sheep at 4 50 per lb gross; stock sheep 2 50 to 2 75 per head; lambs 4 50 per lb gross. Receipts this week 6791 head.

Hogs.—The market has been quite active this week, especially for good hogs, which have been comparatively in light supply. Common and light hogs have been more numerous than needed, and have not exhibited the activity of late. We quote at 7 50 to 8 00 per head, as to quality. We quote at 7 50 to 8 00 per head, as to quality. We quote at 7 50 to 8 00 per head, as to quality.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., Sept. 12, 1877—10:30 a. m.—For the Middle States, stationary, followed by falling barometer, northeast to southeast winds, warmer, partly cloudy weather, increasing to a possibly attended with the formation of a barometric depression in North Carolina.

HYMNAL.—The Washington Republican of this morning says:—

"Three hundred guests, including the most select and cultured in the circle of Hon. H. O. Claiborne, were last evening invited to witness the solemn nuptials of Prof. Geo. West, of Richmond, Va., and Miss Blanche Claiborne, of this city, at the residence of Hon. H. O. Claiborne. The spacious and elegant parlors were regally adorned. Flowers rendered the air redolent, and when the fair bride entered the parlor a murmur of admiration was almost audible. Her elegant toilet, from Madame Washington's, was superb. It was of heavy white silk, princess train, with ruffles of silk extending across the front and over the train; corsage high, in diamond shaped plates; half sleeves, with orange blossoms down the diagonal front and across the train; immense veil, three and one half yards square, with delicate embroidery, and coronet of orange blossoms. The bride's reception dress is of lavender silk, embroidered with white silk. These are two of the magnificent trousseaus which include brown silk, embroidered, a blue silk, cream colored silk and black velvet, traveling and morning toilet. The marriage rites were performed by Rev. Dr. Bullock, of Alexandria. Many guests of note and distinction were present. The presents were numerous and elegant. The reception and wedding supper were occasions long to be remembered for their brilliancy."

The same paper continues:—"Yesterday seemed to be unusually blessed with nature's lavish attention. The clouds dispersed their bounties with gushing fullness, but where the nuptial vows were spoken there were no shadows. The approaching wedding of Miss Laura Ricketts and Lawyer Carrington had been an event much anticipated, and two hundred guests had been invited to the marriage ceremony, fixed at 11:30 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's mother, 933 H Street northwest. The three elegant communication parlors were charmingly arranged. Flowers bloomed amid trailing vines, and their delicious odor came in whiffs of fragrance as fair ladies and elegant gentlemen waited the appearance of the bride and groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Bullock, of Alexandria. Many guests of note and distinction were present. The presents were numerous and elegant. The reception and wedding supper were occasions long to be remembered for their brilliancy."

MAIL ROBBERY.—On Tuesday evening the colored porter at Janney & Co.'s drug store, on King street, near St. Asaph, found on the pavement in front of the store a letter addressed to Mr. Wm. A. Smoot, which had been broken open, and which contained a check payable to Mr. Smoot's order, from a firm in Lynn, Mass., and in the same envelope a letter from another person to a party in this city. The letter was sent to Mr. Smoot, and his suspicions were aroused, from the fact that when Mr. George S. French, his bookkeeper, got out the London mail that evening, only a postal card was in the box. Mr. Smoot also noticed that his mail for the past two days was very light, and, suspecting that something was wrong, informed the postoffice authorities, and changed his box. Yesterday Mr. Smoot was notified by an uptown grocer that a colored boy had brought into his store a check for $400, drawn by Chaff & Co., of Culpeper, in favor of W. A. Smoot, which he said he had found. The grocer's suspicions were also aroused, owing to the same boy having previously brought to him a money order, which he likewise said he had found. It having become evident that some one was tampering with the lock boxes in the postoffice, Mr. Harold Berkley, the Assistant Postmaster, kept a sharp lookout, and on Monday morning, caught a small colored boy in the act of opening the box formerly used by Mr. Smoot. The boy was carried to the station, where he gave his name as George Monroe, and says he lives on Columbus street near the colored Old Fellows' Hall. He is about fourteen years of age and seems to be a shrewd fellow. He claims to have found the key on the sidewalk, but as Mr. Smoot has both keys he is hardly probable. It is believed that the young rascal has been systematically robbing several boxes. He will have a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Fowler. The boy to-day confessed to officer Arnold that he had taken several letters yesterday from Mr. Smoot's box, and finding no ready money in them, had thrown them away in the alley back of the postoffice. On being taken to the alley he showed the officer where to find the letters, one of which contained a check for ten dollars.

ASHORE.—The steamer Charlotte Vanderbilt left here on Tuesday night last at 9 o'clock, having on board a party of about one hundred and twenty-five excursionists from Washington and this city, bound to Point Lookout. Every thing passed off most pleasantly, despite the rain, until about 2:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, when a harsh, grating sound was heard and the boat was found to be aground. The engine was reversed and efforts made to get the boat off, but they proved futile. Most of the passengers were asleep, and very little alarm was created. The point where the Vanderbilt went ashore was near Matomakin shoals, near the Potomac steamboat pier, and that she will be taken off in the morning. The passengers were taken off the Vanderbilt at 5:30 yesterday afternoon by the steamer John W. Thompson and brought up to this city. The steamer Express, which arrived here at a late hour last night, tried to pull the Vanderbilt off, but had to desist, after breaking all of her cables. It was hoped, however, that she would be gotten off at high water to-day.

STEAMER GEORGEANNA.—The Baltimore American of this morning says:—

"It is understood that negotiations are pending for the purchase of the steamer Georgeanna, of the Potomac steamboat line, and that she will be put upon the new line to the Eastern shore probably by the last of this week. The Georgeanna is a well known boat, having been employed in the Bay line of steamers to Norfolk, Va., and on the Potomac steamboat line. She was built in 1850 by the Harlan & Hollingsworth Company, of Wilmington, Del., and is well adapted to the trade she is proposed to be employed in. She has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired recently, and supplied with a new iron bottom. She has forty staterooms, and accommodations for two hundred passengers. She will be commanded by Captain Geoghegan."

CANAL ITEMS.—The Cumberland News says "that canal business was brisk yesterday, but not so heavy as it would have been but for the fact that work was suspended at the Hoffman mine, on account of the death, the day previous, of Messrs. Lewis and Ellis, and but three boats were dispatched by the Consolidation Company."

THE ALLEGANIAN SAYS:—"There new steamer Star, No. 5, recently built and owned by Messrs. Wild and Sheridan, left here yesterday on its first trip down the canal, carrying 99.11 tons of coal for the Maryland Coal Company."

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge Love presiding. Miner vs. Lee; in chancery; seventh report of J. M. Johnson, receiver, filed, and decree. Allen vs. Berry; in chancery; amended and supplemental bill filed.
